LEXINGTON, KY.

A Moderate Priced Bed.

The popular Chiffonier Folding Bed—is a development of the most progressive factories and put within the reach of every home; a safe, convenient, comfortable piece of furniture.

Safe Because
there are no weights, no springs, no complicated machinery required to operate it.

Convenient Because you can put a mattress, pillows and the bed clothing required for the coldest weather, make it up ready for occupancy—then fold it out of the way.

Comfortable Because it has just the same springs and mattress that a more expensive bed has, and they are good.

Desirable Because they are so reasonable. We have them in Oak or Imported Mahogany for $12, $15, $16 and $20.

MAIN AND BROADWAY,
LEXINGTON, KY.

The Owenton Herald, speaking of the "Police Convention," wisely says: "The police are very much like the flowers that bloom in the spring—they have nothing to do with the case. It is the Democratic ticket on one hand, or the Republican ticket on the other, that is the middle ground, which will you take?"

It was during Governor John Young Brown's administration that William Goebel killed John Sanford, and it is said Brown offered Goebel a pardon before trial but it was scorned. Mr. Goebel claiming he had committed no crime, and in this he was upheld by the courts, being triumphantly acquitted.

EDITOR WALTERS is back in the saddle after a trip to the Thousand Isles and a hundred other places in the South. His comparison of Lake Erie to raging St. Asaph creek in Stanford is apropos, but Commodore Perry sent no messages to President Harrison in 1813, according to the arithmetic we studied.

EX-GOVERNOR JAMES B. MCCHESNEY is a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat and is always at his party's service. He will, like Congressman Settle, in addition to tending to his duties as a member of the Campaign Committee, make a number of speeches for the ticket, beginning at Williamstown Monday, Aug. 14.—Owenton Herald.

What is true of Madison is true of other counties, the bolting movement is headed by back numbers who have no other way to win the title of "prominent politician" without leading a forlorn hope. And these back numbers are being led by a railroad corporation abetted by the Republican party. Is that Democracy?

If the Brown convention to-day at Lexington should adopt a free soil resolution the Louisville Post and Courier-Breckinridge, and the L. & N., and a whole posse of the "leaders" will bolt again. This might necessitate another convention, and thus our bolting friends will be in the soup sure enough.

Gov. MCCHESNEY spoke at Williamstown, Grant county, on Monday. He met Judge Green in joint debate and Enquirer says our fellow citizen evinced the judge. Concluding a long article the Enquirer says: "In McChesney's last speech he 'fairly skinned Green alive.' He refuted every argument he had made, and at its close took a vote of the audience. It was a bolter and ought to resign. Nearly every man in the house voted yes. Only one man voted no, and he was a Republican."

If he never before deserved the title of "Little" George Matt Adams, that once contempt officer-bolter deserves it now, having applied for the title in '90 when he snuked and worked against Wood Longmore and now is working hard against Goebel. There are other such "bolters" who owe all they are to that party which they habitually try to ruin whenever they cannot rule it. Little Matt fought the Confederate soldiers in war and in peace, and John Sanford's Confederate friends will not look to Mr. Adams for counsel or leadership.

HON. WM. GOEBEL formally opened the campaign at Mayfield on Monday in the presence of 6,000 people. Mr. Goebel covered the whole field of political controversy in a courageous, convincing manner and reassured his hearers that the banner of Democracy had been placed in the hands of a brave and brainy standard-bearer. His speech is the whole Democratic catechism for 1899, and leaves nothing untouched except Goebel and his bolting crew for whom he had words of neither praise nor scorn. If these will now read Goebel's speech and hear his side of the controversy they will be fair to themselves, to their party, and to their State.

Gov. Brown has not yet denied the serious impeachment that he told Sen. Frank Peak of La Grange, soon after the Louisville convention that he would support the Goebel ticket by vote and voice. His change of heart, therefore, would seem to indicate a very human hankering for pie, as we understand the Republicans will unite with Brown's friends and elect him United States Senator over Blackburn in consideration of Broderick's defeat of Goebel and the election of another Republican Governor. Thus we are to have Hogwag Taylor & Co., successors to Gov. Bradley & Co., and J. Y. Brown in place of Goebel. Will our good better friends not see the milk in the coconut before it is too late?

THE election of Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn to the United States Senate to succeed Senator Lindsay is as much involved in the present campaign as that of Mr. Goebel to the Governorship. If the Democratic State ticket is defeated the Legislature will undoubtedly be so close as to make Blackburn's defeat possible. It is already hinted that John Young Brown has his eyes upon the Senate, hoping to carry a few legislative districts as a nucleus which added to the Republican vote would elect him, should he be able to make a deal with the Republicans in the next Legislature. This is at least food for thought by the Democrats of Madison county and the whole State of Kentucky.

GOEBEL'S opponents in denouncing him to tell the people that he introduced and passed a bill reducing the tolls for foot passengers to one cent across the Covington and Cincinnati bridge; a bill repealing the charters of the State lotteries of Kentucky; a bill making gambling a felony; a bill empowering cities of the second-class to establish and maintain free public libraries; that through his influence were passed the China School Book Bill, a bill regulating the cost of school books, and the McChord Railroad bill, a bill requiring the railroads to base their freight charges on the amount of work done, and not on competition they may have. They might also say that he never smoked a cigar, chewed tobacco or took a drink of intoxicating liquor in his life.

ORKESTED bolting friends have made two awful blunders, in naming another ticket, which will do today at Lexington, and in threatening to knife Bryan in the next national convention if he comes to Kentucky to aid the regular Democratic ticket. These same men have professed admiration for Mr. Bryan and have proclaimed themselves to be loyal to his candidacy. Yet they say to him, that unless he should show himself to be a political traitor and a poltroon, they will knife him. In so doing they have made a sorry spectacle of themselves, and gave Mr. Bryan the opportunity to show the stuff of which he is made, for he has again declared he will come to the State to help Goebel. The incident is a distinct loss to the voters and a distinct gain for Mr. Bryan, with all men who love to see a man, more especially a politician, with the courage of his convictions.

In September the greatest of Democrats, Bryan will come to Kentucky for a week or more, to speak in behalf of the regular State ticket, stopping in Richmond for a day, as per his promise to Gov. McCreary and Hon. W. B. Smith. He will be whirled over the State in a special train, making three or more speeches a day and going into every Congressional district. Great because will be given at different points for the accommodation of the multitudes that will assemble to hear Bryan. He will be followed by the eloquent Bailey, of Texas, who is second only to Bryan as a campaigner; Stone of Missouri, Algeble, Illinois, Teller and Thomas of Colorado, Taylor, McMillen and Purley of Tennessee, Daniel of Virginia, Towne of Minnesota, and more than a score of other great national orators, who have already agreed—aye, volunteered—to come and help redeem Kentucky forever from Republicanism.

We reprint, by request, Gov. Brown's speech before the conference at Lexington, August 2. In so doing we are farther than our friends who requested the Cincinnati Enquirer to print it, and we hope our friends will be as kind as to print it in their papers. It is a fine speech, and we do not mind losing him a few more by reprinting it.

We will waver a button to a ginger cake they have not read Goebel's Mayfield speech delivered Saturday. As the Brown bolters heretofore read nothing but anti-Democratic newspapers, they should open their eyes to the position of the newspapers in their own section of Western Kentucky. Mr. Brown in all his life has not had any more loyal or faithful friends than the Louisville Post and Courier-Breckinridge, and the L. & N., and a whole posse of the "leaders" will bolt again. This might necessitate another convention, and thus our bolting friends will be in the soup sure enough.

Will Meet at Estill Springs.

Capt. Hathaway, who is a member of the Committee of the National Fox Hunters Association to select the time and place of meeting was in Lexington Thursday to attend a meeting of the committee. It was finally decided to hold the annual hunt at Estill Springs November 15th.—Winchester Democrat.

To Bristol, Tennessee.

The many friends of Professor Pepper and wife will be pleased to learn of their pleasant location at Bristol, Tenn., the former having been elected in Kings College to the Greek chair which he filled so acceptably at Central University. Prof. and Mrs. Pepper and Miss Ruth Pepper quite captivated students and citizens alike and we record their success with pleasure.

Prominent Pastor's Perilous Position.

Rev. Carter Helm Jones, brother-in-law of Mr. Albert McCown, of this city, and one of the foremost Baptist divines of the country, narrowly escaped drowning last Saturday. With his wife and children he was fishing in Lake Michigan when the boat overturned and the occupants were dashed into the water where they remained for an hour clinging to the skiff until rescued.

Looking For a Farm.

Mr. Oscar Helton, of Knox county, was down about Red House on Monday looking after a desirable farm with the intention of locating here. He was shown several, among them Mr. Doo S. Harber's pretty place on the Boonesboro pike. Mr. Helton has not yet made a selection, but in the event he locates here we understand Madison will gain one of the best citizens of Knox county.

Off to the War.

That the policy of Imperialism is not popular here, even among Republicans, is evidenced by the fact that only one man, Claude Stone, applied for examination as a recruit for service in the war in the Philippines. Young Stone is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stone and is an able-bodied fellow, an ideal bullet stopper for McKinley. He was sent to the Columbus O. barracks and will go thence to San Francisco with the 37th Infantry.

Fears Smallpox.

A dispatch from Bowling Green says that Dr. J. M. McCormack, Secretary of the State Board of Health, received a telegram Saturday announcing that there had been discovered 12 cases of smallpox at Clementsville, Casey county. The doctor seemed to be considerably worried over the smallpox situation, and said there had been smallpox in more than 40 counties of the State within the last 18 months. He said that unless there was general vaccination and every precaution taken as to sanitary measures, with the advent of cold weather the disease would spread rapidly.

Gone to Ford.

Mr. Harris Goucher, lately messenger of the Western Union office here, has accepted a position of clerk in the railroad office at Ford, at a nice salary. The young man is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Goucher, this place, and earned an enviable reputation for honesty, industry, sobriety and politeness, and incidentally acquired a knowledge of telegraphy. His habits brought him to the favorable notice of several gentlemen and his promotion to his new position is well merited. By strict attention to his new duties Mr. Goucher will easily go up the ladder, which will be gratifying to his friends here, particularly to his fond parents.

Our New Postmaster.

Although he was formally appointed postmaster of Richmond, to take the office August 1, Mr. C. C. Wallace's commission did not reach him for ten days and hence he was not installed as custodian of the government building until Tuesday last week. As hereinafter remarked his selection by Mr. McKinley met with popular commendation, and we predict a first-class administration, for Mr. Wallace, aside from all other qualifications, is by nature obliging and affable, qualities that most becomingly adorn public servants. Mr. and Mrs. Willis will remain a month to acquaint the new postmaster to his official duties, after which they will shed the robes of public office and retire to the privacy of home life "down on the farm."

Six Surviving Veterans of the Mexican War.

So far as we are able to learn, the death last week of Alfred Williams, leaves but six veterans of the Mexican War (1847-48) as follows. General C. M. Clay, Clifton Shifflet, Thos. C. Davis, Jas. Perkins, Jas. P. Dunham and Capt. Nelson Barnes.

The Sensational Vaughn-Smith Encounter.

The friends of Dr. Clarence H. Vaughn and Mr. James W. Smith will probably be interested in the full description of their sensational encounter in this city during the fair. The item appears on our first page to-day, having been crowded out last week. The trouble between them is not over yet.

Some Premiums Won at Lexington.

For the best lace handkerchief shown at the Lexington fair, Mrs. D. H. Myers, of this city, got the blue tie. Mr. John B. Chennaults' coral girdle, Joe Watts' won and money in the speed ring on the first day.

Bales & McElwaine won first money in ring for mare or gelding 15 hands and under on second day.

Immense Tumor Removed.

On Wednesday last, in this city, Mrs. Clinton Winburn, of Downing Creek, was relieved of an ovarian tumor that weighed 46 pounds, containing six or seven gallons of fluid. The operation was performed by three home physicians and they feel confident of the restoration of their patient. It may be remarked that this was probably the largest tumor ever removed in this section of the State. After the operation the lady weighed only about 80 pounds.

Wants to be Jailer.

Elsewhere in to-day's CLIMAX you will find the announcement of Mr. A. J. Ross, better known as Jack Ross, of Madison county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Ross enters the race for the nomination with the understanding that if elected he will not ask for a second term. He is qualified to fill the office and if nominated will certainly defeat his Republican opponent in the final election. He is a true-blue Democrat and has worked at all times for his party's interest.

A General Storm Swept the County.

A severe storm swept over the county from west to east shortly after midnight on Friday and no little damage was done to growing crops, fences, trees, etc. It was just 2 o'clock, a. m. when the first zephyrs began to blow. The leaves in Richmond and the leaves in the northwest were almost constantly aflame with the vivid lightning. In a short time the wind rose in velocity and swept on to the east leveling fields of corn and orchards in its path. In some localities the rain was heavy, and hence the evil was not annulled with good.

Destructive Storm at Doyleville.

The terrible storm that passed over this city last Saturday morning at 4 o'clock, proved very destructive in some parts of the county. Our Doyleville correspondent sends in the following report of the destruction wrought in that neighborhood:

"A very destructive storm passed through here Saturday morning, leveling down large trees by the roots and blowing down whole fields of corn. It swept the roof from Mr. L. N. Sharp's kitchen and porch and blew the porch from Mrs. Nannie Lantier's house. Mr. John Powell's residence was lifted from the foundation and carried about ten feet away, without injury to any of the family.

A Touching Death. Now a Stranger Was Treated.

During their sojourn at Estill Springs, Hon. and Mrs. Robert Franklin's infant son became violently ill and he was brought to Richmond and placed in the care of one of our best physicians with the hope that the disease had not progressed too far to be cured. The child had been so ill that its once strong constitution could not rally under the treatment administered, and the little fellow died here on Thursday afternoon. The remains, accompanied by the sorrowing parents, were conveyed to Frankfort, Indiana, following in the beautiful cemetery where four little brothers and sisters lie buried.

In connection with this sad death may be mentioned the remarks of the father, Hon. Robert Franklin, who is commonwealth attorney of his district. For days and nights he and his wife and sister-in-law had kept vigils by the couch of the little sufferer, until they were literally worn out with fatigue. When they arrived here the good ladies of the city, so Mr. Franklin gratefully acknowledged, were constant in kind attentions to the stricken family, comforting them by their gentle, thoughtful ministrations in this sad hour, and rendering less unbearable the knowledge that death would rob them of their little son far from home and among strangers. Those who know Bob Franklin would scarcely have recognized him last week. He was dejected, worn out by watching and sad to a degree that seemed incredible in one who is ever the center of attraction in any company. It was his melancholy voice in song and oratory that still the multitude as nothing else could at the late State Democratic convention, and all who gladly turned from the tumult there to listen to his melodious music, will join in sympathy in this hour of grief. Those songs there sprang from a heart that loved all mankind, but his anguish now is wrought from a heart whence all gladness is fled. To him and his stricken wife the sympathy of Richmond is extended.

The man who works for the devil never gets a vacation.

The popular view of the relation of the blood to human character and conduct is marked in many a familiar expression. "Blood is the life," "bad blood" being people at enmity, of "blue blood" as indicating ancestry, of "black and blue" as describing a bruise, and so on. In many another phrase mark our belief in the mental, moral and physical man, "the blood is the life." The one basis of a healthy, happy and useful life is pure blood. With the blood pure, disease has no permanent lodging place in the system. For this reason the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures the body of disease, purifies the blood, increasing the action of the blood-making glands, and building up the body by supplying the blood in quantity and quality such as is essential to a condition of health. It cures ninety-eight people out of every hundred who gives it a fair trial.

The man who is religious anywhere is religious everywhere.

For Children Who Take Cold

The Best Remedy For Flux.

John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Paducah, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that it cured me in a very short time." For sale by Perry & Thomas, aug2-1m

High ideals are perhaps responsible for as much pessimism as are torpid livers, on the whole.

You May Bend The Sapping, But Not The Tree.

When disease has become chronic and deep seated it is often difficult to cure it. That is the reason why it is best to take Hood's Sarsaparilla when disease first shows itself—in pimples, blotches, indigestion, or other troubles which tell of poor blood, weak stomach or disordered liver or kidneys. This medicine regulates the whole system. It never disappoints.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic.

Noah Judd was drowned in Hart county while bathing in Little Barren river.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that State, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." McCormack, Secretary of the State Board of Health, received a telegram Saturday announcing that there had been discovered 12 cases of smallpox at Clementsville, Casey county. The doctor seemed to be considerably worried over the smallpox situation, and said there had been smallpox in more than 40 counties of the State within the last 18 months. He said that unless there was general vaccination and every precaution taken as to sanitary measures, with the advent of cold weather the disease would spread rapidly.

Gone to Ford.

Mr. Harris Goucher, lately messenger of the Western Union office here, has accepted a position of clerk in the railroad office at Ford, at a nice salary. The young man is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Goucher, this place, and earned an enviable reputation for honesty, industry, sobriety and politeness, and incidentally acquired a knowledge of telegraphy. His habits brought him to the favorable notice of several gentlemen and his promotion to his new position is well merited. By strict attention to his new duties Mr. Goucher will easily go up the ladder, which will be gratifying to his friends here, particularly to his fond parents.

Our New Postmaster.

Although he was formally appointed postmaster of Richmond, to take the office August 1, Mr. C. C. Wallace's commission did not reach him for ten days and hence he was not installed as custodian of the government building until Tuesday last week. As hereinafter remarked his selection by Mr. McKinley met with popular commendation, and we predict a first-class administration, for Mr. Wallace, aside from all other qualifications, is by nature obliging and affable, qualities that most becomingly adorn public servants. Mr. and Mrs. Willis will remain a month to acquaint the new postmaster to his official duties, after which they will shed the robes of public office and retire to the privacy of home life "down on the farm."
